MEET J. CAROL

J. Carol is a dedicated trailblazer whose work has impacted communities on local, state, and national levels. In 1993, she founded and legally established her enterprise, marking the beginning of a remarkable journey of service and influence.

After years of working in dentistry, J. Carol transitioned from her profession in 2000 to pursue a new path in media and broadcasting. Her career in television began with a program on Public Access Channel 42 in South Georgia before she relocated to Atlanta, Georgia. J. Carol's diverse background includes serving as a News Editor for a newspaper and becoming a prominent Local News Anchor in South Georgia.

A skilled writer, J. Carol honed her craft as a member of the Associated Press, gaining invaluable experience and insights into journalism. Her message, "From Trying to Doing," resonates as a testament to her journey of perseverance and achievement, inspiring others to turn aspirations into reality.

J. Carol's unwavering commitment to storytelling and community outreach continues to leave a lasting legacy, empowering those she reaches to embrace their potential and pursue their dreams.

THE FIRST BLACK FEMALE HISTORIC THEATER OWNER IN SOUTH GEORGIA

In the year of 2021, J. Carol purchased a Historic Theater in South Georgia. She has named it to be the MAJESTY Broadcasting Network. This magnificent facility is also a Community Development Center! With plans of Supporting and Revitalizing the community.

It is a 5,700 square feet facility which seats 500. Paid in cash and debt free is what J. Carol was able to accomplish! It was previously a Historic Carver Theater! "This Broadcasting Historic Theater is amazing. It will also be for the use of outreach, supporting the impoverished and ones in need, performing arts, shows, special events and much more!

MAJESTY STUDIOS & NETWORK

In 2024 more property was purchased. JCarol purchased her impressive 6,665 square feet of adaptable space that is her newest Television Broadcasting Studios and Network. It has been perfect for television shows, podcasting, and much more. There are 22 suites on the inside that are meeting the needs of Majesty. It is also open to all who have a vision in the media.

THE MAGAZINE PUBLISHER

The Majesty Now Magazine is a Lifestyle and Entertainment magazine which was founded in November 2003. It is a magazine that is purposed to expose ones who have articles and advertisers in a Royal Way. "Royal Expose' to the Nations" is incorporated in its logo and theme. Majesty has touched the lives of millions. The website address is www.MajestyNow.com.

TELEVISION HOST - PRODUCER - BROADCASTER

J. Carol has hosted more than 950 episodes in television shows as of March 2024 with people traveling across the world to Majesty Studios from at least 45 of the United States, Africa, the Bahamas, and England. These television shows have aired on international networks which have a viewer reach of more than 180 million per day. Majesty Television was also aired on Delta and Southwestern airlines through national networks. When it comes to bringing media exposure by way of television, J. Carol is one of the first independent contractors from South Georgia to own and host her own national and international television broadcast consistently for more than 25 years of great magnitude.
